

NOT ADVANCING.

No Effort is Being Made By the Allied Forces to Relieve China's Capital.

PRESENT FORCE IS NOT LARGE ENOUGH

About Thirteen Thousand Troops is the Total Number Available to Advance at This Time.

The Situation Was Desperate in Peking, Nine Days Ago, and No Word Has Been Received From There Since Then.

London, July 3.—The allies are not advancing for the relief of Peking. This announcement was made common by William St. John Broderick, under secretary of state for foreign affairs, was received with exclamations of astonishment and indignation. Sir Elles Ashmeade Bartlett inquired if any information had been received from the legations at Peking or as to the composition and command of the relieving force and its present position. Mr. Broderick said the total allied force available is now about 13,000, as troops have been rapidly arriving. He further said: "We do not yet know whether arrangements have been made locally regarding the command of an expedition, but it has not yet been thought possible to attempt a further advance. The consuls have been in communication with the viceroys in the Yang Tse region, and they are quite well aware that support will be given them by her majesty's government in preserving order. It is obvious that the representatives of the powers at Peking should be consulted, as no communications are passing with them."

"The situation here is desperate. Hasten." These words from the message of Von Bergen, a member of the German legation at Peking, accompanied by Sir Robert Hart, inspector general of customs, and dated nine days ago, are the theme of all private conversation. They are preparing for news of a frightful tragedy. Nine days ago the ammunition of the little garrison defending the foreigners was running low and their food was nearly exhausted, while around them was a horde of Shan-su braves, having at their service Krupp guns and repeating rifles. Peking was in the hands of the revolutionists.

According to an Express cable from Shanghai, dated July 2, the southern viceroys wholly disavow Prince Tuan's government. They have practically constituted an independent state, extending from the Hobei to the British and French frontiers. Little else to illuminate the profound obscurity of the situation reaches cable points. The Chinese viceroy to Chefoo appears to be interrupted.

LATEST FROM PEKING.

A Courier Who Left the Chinese Capital Monday, June 25, Has Reached Tientsin.

Tientsin, June 25, via Chefoo, July 1.—and Shanghai, July 3.—A courier from Sir Robert Hart, inspector general of customs at Peking, has just arrived. He left Peking Monday, June 25, and reports the situation desperate. On June 18, he reports, Baron von Ketteler, the German minister, and his secretary attempted to visit the Tung Li Yamen. He was shot four times and died at the rooms of the Tung Li Yamen. His secretary succeeded in making his escape. All of the legations except the British, German and Italian have been destroyed. The diplomats and missionaries are in the Japanese and Russian rifle fire. Cannon command the legations, but they are not being used. It is impossible to start relief at present. Capt. McClellan of the Newark estimates that 30,000 soldiers will be required to relieve the ministers in Peking.

OUR CASUALTIES IN CHINA.

Adm. Kempff Reports to the Navy Department—Capt. McClellan Seriously Wounded.

Washington, July 3.—The navy department received the following cablegram from Adm. Kempff, at Chefoo: "Casualties to date: Corp. James P. Lannigan, Privates J. K. Miller, W. H. Morris, Ed. Provensal, John Pundt, W. H. Nichols, and others. Capt. T. Thomas, Gunner's Mate B. Benson, Apprentice H. A. Broman, Landman H. Severn, seriously wounded. "Cadet Tausch, Boatswain's Mate Holyoke, Coxswain Thomas and 34 others slightly wounded. Ship's crews of all nations re-embarking. Soldiers and marines remain ashore. Capt. McClellan on duty."

Capt. McClellan was reported wounded in a previous cablegram, and the latest news indicates he was not badly hurt.

Germany Will Demand Satisfaction. Berlin, July 3.—Emperor William made up his mind to insist upon full satisfaction for the destruction of the German legation at Peking. Baron von Ketteler, for which purpose he has resolved to send altogether armed forces approximately as large as those of the other powers interested in restoring order in China. The precise size of the forces has not yet been determined, but it is expected they will altogether number a score of thousands. A considerable portion of the German fleet will be sent also.

FIVE WERE FATAL.

The Hottest Day of the Season in Chicago, and Many Fatal Resultations Was the Result.

Chicago, July 3.—A thunder storm that suddenly burst upon Chicago Monday night, after a day of torrid weather, tore down the tents of the Ekronian carnival, at Loomis and Congress streets, caused a panic among 3,000 persons and did much other damage to property and individuals throughout the city. It was several degrees the hottest day this year, the thermometer registering 91 at 4 o'clock. When the storm came a mercury dropped rapidly, and by midnight it had fallen 16 degrees. Five persons perished under the fierce glare of the sun's rays. The cool air.

John Kart, sunstruck while at work; fell to the ground and was killed. Mrs. Flora Griffith, fatal attack of vertigo, brought on by heat. Karl Joslar, overcome while walking upstairs; fell to the bottom and was killed. Henry Klock, died in lodging house from heart failure, superinduced by heat.

Paul Kark, of Polo, Ill., fell on sidewalk from heat and died while being taken to the hospital. The injured are: John K. the insurance agent, stricken while walking in street; will recover. Alfred Green, carpenter, overcome while working; will recover. Harry Hiddison, overcome while at work; may recover.

Joseph Anchors, fell to sidewalk; condition serious. Tony Senelne, found in an unconscious condition; may recover. Richard McDonald, made sick by the heat and removed to County hospital. Frank Dorman, overcome in his cell at the Desplains station; removed to the County hospital.

Michael Nelson, prostrated while at work as a teamster and fell from wagon. Patrick Hannigan, overcome while driving in buggy; serious. Mary O'Brien, prostrated, while shopping.

Patrick Moran, laborer, sunstruck while digging in the street.

ST. LOUIS STRIKE OFF.

An Agreement at Last Reached Between the Transit Co. and Its Former Employees.

St. Louis, July 3.—An agreement between the St. Louis Transit Co. and its former employees was signed by representatives of the Transit Co. and the executive committee of the employees, ending the strike. The agreement is as follows:

"1. The provisions of the agreement of March 10, 1909, as to rates of pay for the employees, will be continued in force by the company."

"2. Every employee of the company to be free to join or not to join any union, and no discrimination will be made for or against him because of the manner in which he exercises his freedom."

"3. Any attempt on the part of any employee to induce another employee, by intimidation or threats, to join or not to join any union shall be cause for immediate discharge of the person guilty of such attempt."

"4. Any attempt to influence any employee by an official of the company to join or not to join any union shall be cause for discharge of such official."

"5. The company will meet any employee or committee of employees, either immediately or through representatives, whether representing themselves, other employees or an association of employees, regarding any matter of mutual interest."

"6. For the purpose of filling vacancies which may now exist or hereafter arise, the committee of former employees shall prepare a list of the men who were in the company's service on May 7 last, and as the company may now or hereafter need additional men, it may select from this list, without interfering, however, with men now in the service. No person shall be eligible to this list who has been guilty of any acts of lawlessness or violence."

"The strike is hereby declared off."

LORD ROBERTS' VIEW.

He Thinks That the War in the Transvaal Will Last for Several Months Yet.

London, July 3.—It is clear that Lord Roberts does not consider the war in the Transvaal as having put a stop to the return of civilians, and has ordered the mining men back to Bloemfontein. He is credited with thinking that the war must close before affairs will be settled enough to permit of the resumption of business.

A body of British men are again reported to be in Swaziland. Gen. Rundle issued a proclamation inviting the farmers discovered in harboring armed ex-convicts, and not informing against them, they will have their farms confiscated.

Commandant Botha Released.

Cape Town, July 3.—Commandant Botha, who was captured by the British near Kroonstad, May 17, has been released under heavy bail. He is to reside in Aliwal North until the conclusion of his preliminary examination.

An Agreement in Sight.

Birmingham, Ala., July 3.—The indications are that the coal operators and miners in this state will come to an agreement by the end of the month. The miners' demand for a 12 percent increase in their wages for the next 12 months.

STILL IN DOUBT.

The Vice Presidential Problem at Kansas City Has Not Yet Been Solved.

MR. SHIPLEY IS OUT OF THE RACE.

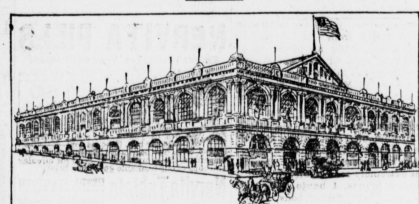

The Leading Candidates Now Seem to Be Charles A. Towne and William Sulzer.

The Platform Has Not Been Made Public, and the Vice Presidential Situation Depends Upon Its Construction.

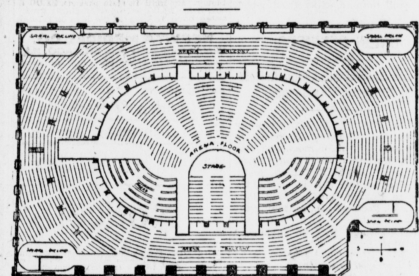

Kansas City, Mo., July 3.—The vice presidential situation is as much in doubt as it was when the delegates to the national democratic convention were elected. There was a shifting of the scene when Benj. F. Shipley, of Indiana, was taken out of the race by his own emphatic statement to the Indiana delegation. Not only the Indiana men, but other delegates in the city accepted the statement of Mr. Shipley and he is not now considered a probability in the race. As the contest stands after Shipley's retirement, the two leading candidates seem to be Chas. A. Towne and Wm. Sulzer, with some men from New York, like Judge Van Wyck or Elliott Danforth, as a possibility under certain contingencies.

The vice presidential situation is interwoven with the platform. If there is a simple reaffirmation of the Chicago platform, some New York man may be selected for vice president, in the hope that he will assist in carrying that state. If there is a carry-declaration for 16 to 1, then Towne may be made Bryan's running mate. It is pointed out as not quite conceivable that a convention which would refuse to make a specific declaration for 16 to 1, with a view of carrying some of the eastern states, would nominate Towne, who left the republican party solely on the ground of his attachment to silver. It is conceded by all the democratic leaders that Towne's strength is in the west and on a silver platform, and that he would not be strong in the east on a modified platform. While it is not a certainty that Towne would be nominated even if there was a specific 16 to 1 declaration, it is generally believed that his chances would be greatly improved by such action, and his friends are making every effort to bring about that result in the convention.

New York is still an uncertain quantity in the field. It is still asserted that she has no candidate, although there is more genuine activity in the Sulzer canvass than in any other that is being made. Mr. Sulzer, while a New York man, is not the candidate of New York and is making his canvass outside of that delegation. That the delegation under favorable conditions, such as concessions in the platform, would unite on some other man seems to be perfectly understood, but it would undoubtedly be a great deal more difficult to bring about outside the state. Whether the convention would unite on Danforth or Van Wyck is uncertain because of the personality of H. C. Tamm. A great deal of talk about the ex-senator in connection with the vice presidential nomination, and in case of a modified platform he might be rushed upon the convention. At the same time it is well understood that his selection would not be satisfactory to Mr. Bryan, less satisfactory, perhaps, than the other New York men mentioned. Mr. Hill himself insists that he is not to be considered, and says it is a waste of time to talk that he does not want it and that he has doubts about his selection if he did want it.

AN AMERICAN MOBBED.

Hacked to Pieces By Moroccan Religious Fanatics and Burned Before Life Was Extinct.

Tangiers, July 3.—There is great excitement at Tangiers owing to French croquetists on the basis of Tangier. A mob killed the manager of a French concern who was an American citizen. The British consul has demanded the assistance of the authorities to protect his houses, and the Jewish ghetto is besieged. The legation here is making serious representations on the subject.

The name of the victim of the mob was Marios Essagin. The outrage occurred on Thursday last. Essagin, while riding on horseback through a narrow street, jolted against the mule of a Moroccan religious fanatic, and a dispute ensued. The crowd which gathered siding with the priest, Essagin in self-defense drew his revolver and fired, wounding a native. This was the signal for a general attack upon the American, who received dozens of knife wounds and whose body was burned, according to some before life was extinct.

The French minister was informed of the crime by a special messenger, and he notified the American consul. Both consuls minister and the consul called upon Sidi Torres, the sultan's minister of foreign affairs at Tangier, and protested against the outrage.

SIXTY-SEVEN RECOVERED.

The Loss of Life at the Hoboken Pier Fire May Reach Over Three Hundred.

New York, July 3.—Sixty-seven bodies of victims of the Hoboken pier fire have been recovered. Each hour that passes witnesses additional recoveries of bodies, scarred, maimed and burned beyond all semblance of humanity. And the half has not yet

CONDENSED TELEGRAMS.

The Ralay river Indians are dispersing, and there is no longer any fear of trouble there.

Jim Jeffords, of California, knocked out All Weing, of Buffalo, in the eighth round at the Olympic Athletic club in Buffalo.

Pringle E. Mitchell, only son of Donald G. Mitchell, author of "Reveries of a Bachelor," died at his home in New York, aged 41 years, after a long illness.

Funeral services over the remains of Mr. Adm. John W. Philip were held at the Brooklyn navy yard. Many prominent naval officers attended.

Walter H. Lindley, superintendent of the dining halls and cars for the Michigan Central and Lake Shore & Michigan Southern railroads, died in Detroit.

The boating contest at the Millvale Open House, in Pittsburgh, between Jack McClelland, of that city, and Oscar Gardner, of Wheeling, was declared a draw after 20 rounds of fast and clever fighting.

MONDAY'S NEWS IN BRIEF.

Adm. Kempff cables that the battle ship Oregon, anchored, is not in a serious condition.

Large crowds are pouring into Kansas City, Mo., to attend the democratic national convention.

The transport Grant, with Gen. Chaffee and troops aboard, was forced to return to San Francisco by the rippling open of a steam pipe. She was repaired and went on her way to China.

A cablegram from Adm. Kempff says that the legations in Peking are besieged and that provisions are nearly exhausted. There are 20,000 Chinese soldiers inside and 20,000 outside the city.

Gov. Roosevelt, on his way to the Rough Riders' reunion at Oklahoma, stopped over at Kansas City for half an hour. Republicans and democrats alike united in giving him a vociferous welcome.

The city water works reservoir at Grand Rapids, Mich., burst, deluging a thickly populated district on the Illinois bench at Detroit. The damage is estimated at hundreds of thousands of dollars. One life was probably lost.

The death list in the Hoboken holocaust grows. It is now thought 250 people perished by the burning of the four ocean line steamers Sault, Bremen, Main and Phenicia. A total of 35 bodies have been taken from the river.
